

Givin' It Up Wins Two 2007 GRAMMY® Awards

Two songs from the Monster Music SuperDisc™, High Definition Surround (HDS) release of George Benson and Al Jarreau's Givin' It Up were winners during the 49th Annual GRAMMY Awards, held on February 11, 2007, at STAPLES Centre in Los Angeles.

The songs and categories for which Givin' It Up won 2007 Grammy Awards are:

"Mornin'" for Best Pop Instrumental Performance

"God Bless the Child" (featuring Jill Scott) for Best Traditional R&B Vocal Performance

Benson and Jarreau were also nominated for "Breezin'" in the Best R&B Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocals category.

"What an incredible night!" said Noel Lee, The Head Monster, who served as executive producer on Givin' It Up and has been a friend of Benson's for more than 20 years. "George [Benson] and Al [Jarreau] worked so incredibly hard on Givin' It Up and I could not think of anyone else more deserving of taking home Grammy awards. We wholeheartedly congratulate both of these R&B legends on these tremendous industry recognitions."

Lee added that he believes, sonically, that Givin' It Up is the best sounding album from either of these artists. Givin' It Up is Monster Music's first newly recorded studio project and extreme care was taken to preserve the impact and naturalness of the moment. Givin' It Up sets a benchmark in audio quality, delivering the highest fidelity stereo and surround experiences in Dolby Digital and DTS for both home theatre systems and iPod/MP3 players. Givin' It Up is now available at most consumer electronics stores and at www.monstermusic.com.
